Gentlemen:-

I am in receipt of yours of the 4th instant in relation to Mr. Ed. Frossard.

In reply I am sorry to say that it is impossible at the present time to say when Mr. Frossard will be in a position to pay your bill.

I have received advices from him, the latest of which informs me that he has only just been able to obtain employment, his illness having been so severe as to prevent him heretofore. He has informed me that he expects to start paying his debts on the first of January next; further than that I have no knowledge of his affairs.

Your statement that the goods for which he owes you were entrusted to him as agent and not sold to him, I must on his behalf deny.

Yours very truly,

Edward C. Dowling
